November 11th—15th

International Education Week is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchange worldwide. This joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education is part of their efforts to promote programs that prepare Americans for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study, learn, and exchange experiences in the United States.

Sunday, November 10th
IU Cinema Presents: Cuba, an African Odyssey
Award-winning documentary that tells the story of the Cold War through an African context. From 1961 to 1991, the African continent was a battleground for four different competing interests: the Soviet Union, the United States, European Empires, and newly formed African nations. When the latter called upon Cuban guerrillas to defend the nations’ newly acquired independence, Castro and the Cuban military stepped in to provide a new offensive strategy, one which would have long-lasting influence on developing countries’ battles against colonialism. (118 min. Not Rated)
Time: 3:00–5:00 p.m. Location: IU Cinema (1213 E. 7th St.)

Tuesday, November 12th
